

The Army's policy on sexual assault

The Army policy on sexual assault is as follows:

- Sexual assault is a criminal offense that has no place in the Army. It degrades mission readiness by devastating the Army's ability to work effectively as a team
- Sexual assault is incompatible with Army Values and the Warrior Ethos and is punishable under the Uniform Codes of Military Justice (UCMJ) and other federal and local civilian laws
- The Army will use training, education, and awareness to -
 - Prevent sexual assault
 - Promote the sensitive handling of victims of sexual assault
 - Offer confidential counseling
 - Hold those who commit sexual assault offenses accountable Reinforce a commitment to Army Values
- The Army will treat all victims of sexual assault with dignity, fairness, and respect
- The Army will treat every sexual assault incident seriously, thoroughly investigate the incident, and hold those who commit offenses accountable.

Sexual Assault is Incompatible with Army Values and the Warrior Ethos

Sexual assault can reduce the strength of your entire unit. You have a responsibility as a Soldier to work to prevent sexual assault from occurring in your unit.

Army Values

Loyalty

Bear true faith and allegiance to the U.S. Constitution, the Army, your unit, and other Soldiers.

Duty

Fulfill your obligations.

Respect

Treat people as they should be treated.

Selfless-Service

Put the welfare of the Nation, the Army, and your subordinates before your own.

Honor

Live up to all the Army Values.

Integrity

Do what's right, legally and morally.

Personal Courage

Face fear, danger, or adversity (physical or moral).

Warrior Ethos

I will always place the mission first.

I will never accept defeat.

I will never quit.

I will never leave behind a fallen comrade.
